--The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address--

The Appeal Brief filed on 22 July 2004 is defective for failure to comply with one or more provisions of 37 CFR 41.37.

To avoid dismissal of the appeal, applicant must file an amended brief or other appropriate correction (see MPEP 1205.03) within ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this Notification, whichever is longer.

EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136.

1. ☐ The brief does not contain the items required under 37 CFR 41.37(c), or the items are not under the proper heading or in the proper order.
2. ☐ The brief does not contain a statement of the status of all claims, (e.g., rejected, allowed, withdrawn, objected to, canceled), or does not identify the appealed claims (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iii)).
3. ☐ At least one amendment has been filed subsequent to the final rejection, and the brief does not contain a statement of the status of each such amendment (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iv)).
4. ☐ (a) The brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, referring to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters; and/or (b) the brief fails to: (1) identify, for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, and/or (2) set forth the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).
5. ☐ The brief does not contain a concise statement of each ground of rejection presented for review (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vi)).
6. ☐ The brief does not present an argument under a separate heading for each ground of rejection on appeal (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vii)).
7. ☐ The brief does not contain a correct copy of the appealed claims as an appendix thereto (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(viii)).
8. ☐ The brief does not contain copies of the evidence submitted under 37 CFR 1.130, 1.131, or 1.132 or of any other evidence entered by the examiner and relied upon by appellant in the appeal, along with a statement setting forth where in the record that evidence was entered by the examiner, as an appendix thereto (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(ix)).
9. ☐ The brief does not contain copies of the decisions rendered by a court or the Board in the proceeding identified in the Related Appeals and Interferences section of the brief as an appendix thereto (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(x)).
10. ☒ Other (including any explanation in support of the above items):

See attached.

DETAILED ACTION

1. On 3 February 2003, Applicant submitted an Appeal Brief. This Brief was defective & Applicant was so notified on 19 May 2003. Applicant submitted another (defective) Appeal Brief on 23 June 2003. On 29 September 2003, Examiner reopened prosecution to correct a typographical error, but notified Applicant that the Brief was defective. On 3 December 2003, Applicant submitted another Brief. This too was defective. On 17 March 2004, the Examiner abandoned the case & explained why the 3 December Brief was defective. On 22 July 2004, Applicant submitted yet another Brief – the fourth submitted by the Applicant. This too is defective – for many of the same reasons outlined in the 17 March 2004 Office Action.
2. According to the petition decision of 2 August 2004, Applicant has 30 days in which to submit a Brief that is not defective. Presumably, this is Applicant's last chance to do so.
3. Examiner urges Applicant to simplify the Brief. Arguing the separate patentability of dependent claims is extremely difficult – arguing that the claim contains additional limitations is not enough to satisfy this requirement. Applicant must essentially explain why Examiner should have made a restriction requirement for the claim in question.
4. While Applicant may file the Brief under the old format, Examiner urges Applicant to file under the new format. The new format is designed to be easier for the Applicant. Please be advised, however, that whichever format the Applicant chooses, THE BRIEF MUST BE LETTER PERFECT. Applicant should review all previous correspondence for information on errors to be avoided.
5. Applicant has a 1-month shortened statutory period under 37 CFR 1.135(c) for correction of the errors in the Appeal Brief. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE

Art Unit: 3714

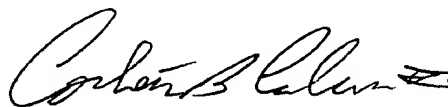

GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a). If Applicant fails to file a correct Brief, the Application will be abandoned.
